DECLARATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION
FOR AN ORDER DIRECTING ENTRY OF A DEFAULT JUDGMENT

MICHAEL J. MACCO, ESQ., affirms under the penalties of perjury:

1. I am a member of Macco & Stern, LLP, attorneys for Walter G. Wagner, the above-referenced plaintiff (the “Plaintiff”) in the adversary proceeding (the “Adversary Proceeding”) against Laurie A. Wagner (the “Defendant”), and, as such, am familiar with the facts and circumstances herein.

2. I submit this affirmation in support of the motion(the “Motion”) for an order (the “Order”) directing entry of a default judgment against the Defendant pursuant to Rule 55 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the “Civil Rules”), made applicable through Rule 7055 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, determining that the Defendant’s debts to the Plaintiff are non-dischargeable under §§523(a)(5) and (15) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). A copy of the proposed Order is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

3. For the reasons set forth below, entry of a default judgment (the “Default Judgment”) in Plaintiff’s favor under Bankruptcy Rule 7055 is appropriate. A copy of the proposed Default Judgment is annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

THE ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

4. The Adversary Proceeding was commenced on October 23, 2014 pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§523(a)(5) and (15), by the filing a complaint (the “Complaint”) (ECF Docket No. 1) seeking a determination that certain monies Defendant owed to the Plaintiff and included on the Defendant’s Petition and Schedules, were non-dischargeable, and entering a judgment against Defendant in such amount. A copy of the Complaint is annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

5. On October 24, 2014, the Clerk of the Court issued a summons (the “Summons”) (ECF Doc. No. 2). A copy of the Summons is annexed hereto as Exhibit D.

6. On October 28, 2014, the Plaintiff served the Summons and Complaint upon Defendant (ECF Doc. No. 3). A copy of affidavit of service is annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

7. Pursuant to the Summons and Bankruptcy Rule 7004(e) Defendant was required to file a responsive pleading on or before November 24, 2014 (the “Answer Deadline”).

8. Between October 23, 2014 and the Answer Deadline, Defendant’s divorce attorney, who is not representing her in the bankruptcy case or the Adversary Proceeding, contacted the Plaintiff, but at no point requested an extension of the Answer Deadline.

9. Defendant failed to file a responsive pleading before the Answer Deadline.

10. To date, no attorney has filed a notice of appearance on the Defendant’s behalf.

11. Insofar as the Defendant has failed to defend against the claims asserted in the Complaint, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant this Motion and enter the proposed Order and proposed Default Judgment.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

12. A court may enter a default judgment against a party when the when that party has failed to plead or otherwise defend its side of the case.

13. Civil Rule 55, made applicable to the Adversary Proceeding by Bankruptcy Rule 7055, states, in relevant part:

(a) Entering a Default. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default.

(1) By the Clerk. If the plaintiff's claim is for sum certain or a sum that can be made certain by computation, the clerk – on the plaintiff's request, with an affidavit showing the amount due – must enter judgment for that amount and costs against a defendant who has been defaulted for not appearing and who is neither a minor nor an incompetent person.

(2) By the Court. In all other cases, the party must apply to the court for a default judgment. A default judgment may be entered against a minor or incompetent person only if represented by a general guardian, conservator, or other like fiduciary who has appeared. If the party against whom a default judgment is sought has appeared personally or by a representative, that party or its representative must be served with written notice of the application at least 7 days before the hearing. The court may conduct hearings or make referrals – preserving any federal statutory right to a jury trial – when, to enter or effectuate judgment, it needs to:

(A) conduct an accounting;

(B) determine the amount of damages;

(C) establish the truth of any allegations by evidence; or

(D) investigate any other matter.

14. Bankruptcy Rule 7012(e) states “[i]f a co complaint is duly served, the defendant shall serve an answer within 30 days after he issuance of the summons.”

15. The Complaint was duly served upon the Defendant, as evidenced by the Affidavit of Service annexed hereto.

16. The Answer Deadline was thirty-days (30) days from the issuance of the Summons.

17. Defendant has failed to appear, answer, or otherwise respond to the Complaint by the Answer Deadline.

18. Defendant is neither a minor nor an incompetent.

19. Upon information and belief, Defendant is not currently in active-military service.

20. The Complaint has established:

(a) Defendant is the former spouse of the Plaintiff;

(b) Defendant was obligated to pay the Plaintiff Twenty-Thousand and 00/100 ($20,000.00) with interest at a statutory rate of nine-percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012, within thirty (30) days of June 19, 2014, as a domestic support obligation;

(c) Defendant was obligated to pay the Plaintiff Five-Thousand and 00/100 ($5,000.00) within sixty (60) days of June 19, 2014, as attorneys’ fees related to a domestic support obligation;

(d) Defendant has not paid the Plaintiff any portion of these amounts.

21. Accordingly, Plaintiff is entitled to entry of a judgment on the First Claim for Relief and the Second Claim for Relief pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §§523(a)(5) and (15).

22. No prior application for the relief requested herein has been made to this or any other Court.

CONCLUSION

23. I respectfully request that the Court (i) enter an order under Bankruptcy Rule 7055 granting the Plaintiff's Motion; (ii) enter a judgment against Defendant determining that the amounts Defendant owes to the Plaintiff are non-dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code 523(a); (iii) enter a money judgment against Defendant in the amount of (a) $20,000.00 with interest at a statutory rate of nine-percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012, and (b) $5,000.00 as attorneys' fees; and (iv) granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

24. I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on December 11, 2014 in Melville, New York.

COMPLAINT

Walter G. Wagner, the above-referenced plaintiff (the “Plaintiff”), by his attorneys, Macco & Stern, LLP, complaining of defendant-debtor Laurie A. Wagner (the “Defendant”), respectfully represents and sets forth as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§157(a) and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§157(b)(2)(A), (B), (I), and (O). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1408 and 1409. The statutory predicates for relief are 11 U.S.C. §§523(a)(5) and (15), and Rules 4001 and 7001(6) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff is an individual residing in the State of New York.
3. Defendant is an individual residing in the State of New York.

BACKGROUND

4. On September 16, 2014 (the "Petition Date"), the Defendant filed a voluntary petition (the "Petition") for relief under chapter 7 of title 11, United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").

5. Thereafter, R. Kenneth Barnard, Esq., was appointed the interim trustee of the Defendant's bankruptcy estate, duly qualified, and is now the permanent trustee of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

6. In November 1985, Plaintiff and Defendant (collectively, the "Parties") were married.

7. On or about February 15, 2001, the Parties separated pursuant to written separation agreement (the "Separation Agreement"). A copy of the Separation Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1.

8. On or about November 21, 2002, the Parties were formally divorced by a judgment of divorce (the "Divorce Judgment") entered by the Supreme Court for the State of New York, County of Suffolk (the "State Court") in the Parties' divorce action, assigned index number 16870/2002 (the "Divorce Action"). A copy of the Divorce Judgment is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2.

9. The Divorce Judgment incorporated, but did not merge with, the Separation Agreement.

10. On or about May 18, 2003, the Parties amended the Separation Agreement (the "Amended Separation Agreement") to include, inter alia, language regarding the Defendant's obligation to remit $20,000.00 on or before the Parties' youngest child's twenty-first birthday, or if the child was attending college, end of the academic year after the child's twenty-first birthday. A copy of the Amended Separation Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit 3.

11. On or about January 15, 2012, the Parties' youngest child turned twenty-one, and all conditions precedent to the Separation Payment contained in the Amended Separation Agreement were met.

12. Therefore, the Defendant was obligated to make the Separation Payment to the Plaintiff pursuant to the Amended Separation Agreement. Defendant made no such payment.

13. Plaintiff re-opened the Divorce Action to compel Defendant's remittance of the Separation Payment.

14. On June 19, 2014, the State Court entered a Decision and Order (the "Separation Payment Order") ordering the Defendant to make pay the Plaintiff $20,000.00, together with statutory interest at nine-percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012, within thirty days (the "Ordered Payment"). The State Court also ordered the Defendant to pay the Plaintiff $5,000.00 (the "Attorney's Fees," and together with the Ordered Payment, the "Owed Amount") within sixty (60) days for the Plaintiff's attorneys' fees. A copy of the Separation Payment Order is annexed hereto as Exhibit 4.

15. As of the Petition Date, Defendant had remitted no portion of the Owed Amount to the Plaintiff

16. On Schedule F to the Petition, Defendant lists the Plaintiff as a creditor holding a claim in the amount of $23,450.00 as "payment for real estate."

17. Upon information and belief, the amount on Schedule F reflects the Defendant's obligation to remit the Ordered Payment, including interest, but fails to include the Attorney's Fees.

18. On or about October 1, 2014, Plaintiff sent a letter (the "Letter") to Defendant requesting Plaintiff and Defendant stipulate to the non-dischargeability of the Owed Amount under Bankruptcy Code §523. A copy of the Letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit 5.

19. Defendant's attorney's response to the Letter indicates that the Defendant does not agree to the entire Owed Amount, including interest and attorney's fees, and does not agree that the Owed Amount is totally non-dischargeable.

20. The Owed Amount is a non-dischargeable debt under Bankruptcy Code §§523(a)(5) and/or (15).

AS AND FOR THE FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. §523(a)(5))

21. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and reasserts each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "22" of this Complaint as it is set forth at length herein.

22. The debt underlying the Owed Amount accrued prior to date an order for relief was entered in the Defendant's above-referenced bankruptcy case.

23. The Plaintiff is a former spouse of the Defendant.

24. The Owed Amount is owed to and recoverable by the Plaintiff

25. The Owed Amount is in the nature of alimony, maintenance or support.

26. The Owed Amount was established prior to the date an order for relief was entered in the Defendant's above-referenced bankruptcy case.

27. The Owed Amount was established by a separation agreement, divorce decree, or property settlement.

28. The Owed Amount was not assigned to a nongovernmental entity.

29. The Owed Amount is a domestic support obligation

30. Consequently, Plaintiff is entitled to an order determining that Owed Amount, comprised of the Ordered Payment, in the amount of $20,000.00, together with statutory interest at nine-percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012, plus the Attorney's Fees, in the amount of $5,000.00, plus attorneys' fees and costs, is non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(5), and a judgment be entered against Defendant in such amount.

AS AND FOR THE SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. §523(a)(15))

31. Plaintiff repeats, realleges, and reasserts each and every allegation contained in paragraphs "1" through "31" of this Complaint as it is set forth at length herein.

32. The Plaintiff is a former spouse of the Defendant.

33. Consequently, Plaintiff is entitled to an order determining that Owed Amount, comprised of the Ordered Payment, in the amount of $20,000.00, together with statutory interest at nine-percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012, plus the Attorney's Fees, in the amount of $5,000.00, plus attorneys' fees and costs, is non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(15) and a judgment be entered against Defendant in such amount.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that the Court enter an order:

- (a) as to the first claim for relief, determining that debt of not less than $25,000.00, together with statutory interest laid forth in the Separation Payment Order, plus attorneys' fees and costs, is non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(5), and a judgment be entered against Defendant in such amount;
- (b) as to the second claim for relief, determining that debt of not less than $25,000.00, together with statutory interest laid forth in the Separation Payment Order, plus attorneys' fees and costs, is non-dischargeable pursuant to Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(15), and a judgment be entered against Defendant in such amount; and
- (c) granting such other and different relief as the Court deems just and proper.

a) The parties, by execution of this agreement, have provided for the equitable distribution of all property belonging to them whether such property qualifies as "separate property" or as "marital property" within the meaning of Section 236B of the Domestic Relations Law. Any reference to allocation of property, whether real or personal, and whether properly defined as "separate property" or as "marital property" is made for the purpose of settling claims to such property by either of the parties and/or for the purpose of effectuating an equitable distribution between the parties.

b) The parties further agree that the distribution of property, as set forth in this agreement, constitutes distribution which shall be binding on both parties, now or in the future, and each party waives any claim of right or title to any property, either real or personal, which has been allocated to the other party pursuant to the terms of this agreement or which may hereafter be acquired by the other party.

c) In order to evaluate their separate and marital property to enable the parties to arrive at the equitable distribution set forth in this agreement, the parties have made full disclosure to one another of all assets and liabilities. The parties acknowledge that they have been advised that each has the right to demand a Statement of Net Worth from the other.

d) The parties acknowledge that they are aware of Section 236 (b) of the Domestic Relations Law of the State of New York, commonly known as the Equitable Distribution Law. e) The parties intend that their real and personal property division, as provided in this agreement, shall be final and irrevocable. Unless the parties execute a formal amendment to this agreement, in writing, it is their intention that the WIFE'S separate property shall forever remain hers, and the HUSBAND'S separate property shall forever remain his, notwithstanding (a) the reconciliation of the parties; (b) the rescission or termination of this agreement; or (c) a remarriage between the parties, in the event they are divorced.

f) Each party is convinced that he/she knows the nature, extent and value of the other party's property. The parties acknowledge that they are aware of their right to compel discovery and inspection of the other party's books and records, business and personal, of their right to have accountants, appraisers or others investigate, appraise or evaluate the other party's business and property. Each party has elected not to take any further steps, themselves, or through others, in connection with discovery, inspection, investigation, appraisal or evaluation of the other party's business or property. EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY AGREES THAT HIS/HER DECISION NOT TO SEEK APPRAISALS AND/OR TO UTILIZE OTHER FINANCIAL DISCOVERY PROCEDURES SHALL NOT AT ANY TIME BE A BASIS OF SEEKING THE RESCISSION OR INVALIDITY OF THIS AGREEMENT.

ALLOCATION OF PROPERTY

a) The parties have identified and evaluated their "marital property" as well as their "separate property" and have arrived at an allocation of their "property" which they deem to be an equitable distribution.

b) Following is a list of "property" as identified by the parties:

All other items not listed above will remain in the marital home during WIFE's exclusive occupancy and shall be the WIFE's separate property.

d) Except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, each party shall own, as his or her "separate property" free of any claim of right of the other, all of the items of property, real, personal and mixed, of any kind, nature of description and wheresoever situated, and/or which are allocated to each party pursuant to this Agreement, and/or which are now and

e) HUSBAND and WIFE have agreed that each will heretofore only have separate checking and savings accounts and will have no joint bank accounts.

f) Each party shall retain all items of personal jewelry as his/her "separate property" and each party hereby forever waives any claim of right, title or interest to the jewelry presently in the possession of the other party.

g) As part of the equitable distribution between the parties, the parties have reached the following agreement regarding their automobiles:

1. The WIFE represents that she will retain as her "separate property" the 1991 Ford Taurus automobile which will be registered under her name. The HUSBAND hereby waives any and all claim of right, title or interest to said automobile from the date of the signing of this Agreement.

j) The HUSBAND and WIFE acknowledge that the HUSBAND has a retirement pension account through the Town of Oyster Bay, beginning on March 28, 1985, Registration #3398691-0, Plan A15. HUSBAND acknowledges that this retirement pension account may be a marital asset to which WIFE is entitled to equitable distribution, and that said asset is capable of being evaluated by an expert. The HUSBAND acknowledges that he has signed authorization forms for an expert to prepare a Domestic Relations Order which will become effective at the time of the Judgment of Divorce and which will be submitted to a Judge of the County of Suffolk at the same time that the proposed Judgment of Divorce is presented to the Supreme Court of Suffolk County. It is understood and agreed between the HUSBAND and the WIFE that the valuation date used by the expert to determine the marital portion for the WIFE shall be the date of the execution of this Separation Agreement, but will include any interest or earnings on that marital portion that accrue between the execution of the Separation Agreement and the granting of the Judgment of Divorce which shall include the aforementioned Domestic Relations Order.

k) HUSBAND represents that he has life insurance through Met Life worth approximately $250,000.00, Account #997203244 . Proof of such insurance coverage should be sent to WIFE if she requests such information until the time that the youngest CHILD becomes twenty-one (21) years of age.

l) If it shall be hereinafter determined that either party is now possessed of any property that would be subject to distribution that is not set forth in this Agreement, or that one of them has made, without the consent of the other, any gift or transfer of such property without adequate consideration, the parties hereby covenant and agree that the non-receiving/injured party shall receive from the other party, on demand, an amount equal to one-half (1/2) the fair market value of such property at the highest value between the date of this Agreement and the date of settlement of the issue of after discovered property.

LEGAL REPRESENTATION

The parties represent to each other that the WIFE has been represented by BARBARA JANE KELLY, Attorney at Law, 85 Echo Avenue, Miller Place, New York 11764 and the HUSBAND is aware of his right to have his own independent counsel but has chosen to represent himself. The parties have been advised by their respective attorneys of their right to compel further discovery and inspection of the other's financial and personal books and records and their right to have accountants, appraisers or others investigate, appraise or evaluate each other's finances and property and to conduct further depositions, among other procedures, with respect thereto. Each party has waived these rights and has instructed his or her respective attorney not to take any further steps, themselves or through others, in connection with further discovery, inspection, investigation, appraisal or evaluation of the other's income, business, property or other financial circumstances. Each has had a full opportunity and has consulted at length with his or her attorney regarding all of the circumstances hereof and acknowledges that this agreement has not been the result of any fraud, duress or undue influence exercised by either party upon the other or by any other person or persons upon the other. Both parties acknowledge that this agreement has been achieved after full disclosure, competent legal representation and honest negotiations.

POSSIBLE INVALIDITY

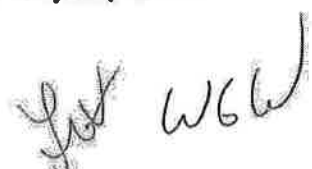

In case any provision of this agreement should be held to be contrary to or invalid under the law of any country, state or other jurisdiction, said illegality or invalidity shall not affect in any way any other provisions hereof, all of which shall continue, nevertheless, in full force and effect, and the provision which is held to be illegal or invalid in any country, state or other jurisdiction shall, nevertheless, remain in full force and effect in any country, state or jurisdiction in which such provision is legal and valid.

INDEPENDENT COVENANTS

Each of the respective rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be deemed independent and may be enforced independently irrespective of any of the other rights and obligations set forth herein.

RECONCILIATION AND MATRIMONIAL DECREES

a) This Agreement shall not be invalidated or otherwise affected by a reconciliation or a resumption of marital relations between the parties unless they have executed and acknowledged a written statement expressly setting forth that they are cancelling this Agreement. This Agreement shall not be invalidated or otherwise affected by any decree or judgment made in any court in any pending or future action or proceeding between the parties.

b) Each party agrees that the provisions of this Agreement shall be submitted to any court in which either party may seek a judgment, order or decree in a matrimonial action or any other action or proceeding affecting the marital status of the parties and that the provisions of this Agreement shall be incorporated in said judgment, order or decree with such specificity as the court shall deem permissible and by reference as may be appropriate under law and under the rules of the court. However, notwithstanding said incorporation, the provisions of this Agreement shall survive any decree, order or judgment and shall not merge therein, and this Agreement may be independently enforced.

MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof shall be amended or modified except by an agreement in writing duly subscribed and acknowledged with the same formality as this Agreement, except as expressly provided herein. Any waiver by either party of any provision of this Agreement or any right hereunder shall not be deemed a continuing waiver and shall not prevent or estop such party from thereafter enforcing such right, and the failure of either party to insist in any one or more instances upon the strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement by the other party shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment for the future of such provision, but the same shall continue in full force and effect.

LEGAL INTERPRETATION

This Agreement and all of the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder shall be construed according to the laws of the State of New York as an agreement made and to be performed within said State.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

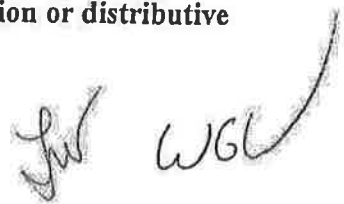

The parties hereby agree that each will notify the other by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, of any change of address, and/or telephone number, within five (5) days of the date of such change.

IMPLEMENTATION

Each party promptly, upon request by the other party, shall make, execute and deliver any and all other and further instruments as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of giving full force and effect to the provisions of this Agreement without charge therefor.

MUTUAL RELEASE AND DISCHARGE OF CLAIMS IN ESTATES

Except as herein otherwise provided, each party hereby releases, waives and relinquishes forever and for all purposes any and all rights which he or she may now have, or may hereafter acquire, as the other party's spouse, under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction or any statute or custom to share in the property or estate of the other wheresoever situated as a result of the marital relationship or whether acquired before or subsequent to marriage or before or subsequent to date of this Agreement by reason of his or her inheritance or descent including the right to equitable distribution or distributive award, dower, curtesy or community property under any Will or testamentary writing heretofore or now in existence (a) to share in the estate of the other party upon the latter's death; and (b) to act as executor, administrator or legal representative of the other party's estate. This provision is intended to, and shall constitute, a mutual waiver by the parties to take under any existing Will or testamentary writing of the other or to take against each other's Wills or testamentary writings, heretofore or now in force, under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction whatsoever. The consideration for each party's waiver and release is the other party's reciprocal waiver and release. The parties intend, by the aforescribed waiver and release, to relinquish any and all rights in and to each other's estate, including the rights of set-off now provided in Section 5-3.1 of the ESTATES, POWERS AND TRUSTS LAW of the State of New York, and any distributive shares presently provided in Section 4-1.1 of the ESTATES, POWERS AND TRUSTS LAW and all rights of election presently provided for in Section 5-1.1 of said law or any prior or subsequent similar provision of this or any other jurisdiction including, without limitation, the right to equitable distribution or distributive award, dower, curtesy or community property under any Will or testamentary writing now in existence unless the same is reaffirmed by redating after the date hereof.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions, either party may serve as executor or legal representative of the estate of the other or accept a specific bequest, if provision therefore is made, in the other party's Will, executed or reaffirmed subsequent to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

However, the foregoing shall not bar a claim on the part of either party against the other as set forth above for any cause or causes arising out of a breach of this Agreement during the lifetime of the deceased party against whose estate such claim may be made.

Each party will, whenever requested by the other party, execute, acknowledge and deliver any instruments which are necessary to effectuate the understandings, waivers, releases and discharges provided herein. Each party, in the event of death of the other party, whether such party dies testate or intestate, will, whenever required by the executors, administrators or other legal representatives, execute any waiver of his or her right of election against the Last Will and Testament of the other, curtesy and other rights to take as distributive heir or next of kin and the like as may be required to effectuate the terms hereof.

ENTIRE UNDERSTANDING

This Agreement contains the full understanding of the parties who hereby acknowledge that there have been, and are no representation, warranties, covenants or undertakings, other than those expressly set forth herein. The parties agree that if a Memorandum of this Agreement shall be executed upon the signing hereof, the same may be filed in office of the County Clerk of the County in which the marital residence is located.

DUPLICATE ORIGINALS

This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed an original and shall constitute one and the same Agreement.

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK COUNTY OF SUFFOLK

DECISION AND ORDER

PRESENT: Hon. Jennifer A. Buetow
Special Referee_____
LAURIE A. WAGNER,

Plaintiff,

-against-

WALTER G. WAGNER,

Defendant.
_____XPlaintiff's AttorneyJ. Gary Waldvogel, Esq.
732 Smithtown by-Pass
Suite A54
Smithtown, NY 11787Defendant's AttorneyGregory Rabinowitz, P.C.
400 Jericho Tpke., Ste. 222
Jericho, NY 11753

The above-captioned matter was referred to the undersigned by the Hon. Andrew A. Crecca by Order dated January 28, 2014 to hear and determine "all post judgment issues pending as per the respective application of the parties." The parties agreed to bifurcate the hearing and hear the defendant's application first. The plaintiff's application was adjourned for hearing to September 17, 2014. At the hearing, three (3) exhibits were marked as Court Exhibits, plaintiff marked one (1) exhibit into evidence and the defendant marked two (2) exhibits into evidence.

The parties were divorced by Judgment of Divorce entered on November 21, 2002. Said Judgment incorporated but did not merge the parties' Separation Agreement executed on February 15, 2001. In or about May 18, 2003, the parties entered into a Modification of Separation Agreement.

As it pertains to the instant matter, the Modification of Separation Agreement states:

A. MARITAL RESIDENCE: Delete Paragraph b) through g). Add Section h): HUSBAND and WIFE hereby represent that the WIFE shall exercise her option to buy out the marital residence from the HUSBAND and shall refinance the marital residence on or about may 2003. Upon the signing of this Modification of Separation Agreement, and at closing of the refinancing on the marital residence, WIFE shall give to HUSBAND the sum of FIFTY THOUSAND ($50,000.00) DOLLARS AND NO/CENTS as and for consideration for HUSBAND'S waiving the right, title or interest to the marital residence and transferring title on the deed to WIFE to be recorded with the Suffolk County Clerk. In addition, WIFE represents that she shall give to HUSBAND an additional TWENTY THOUSAND ($20,000.00) DOLLARS AND NO/CENTS, with no interest or penalties added, on or before the youngest child of the marriage, JONATHAN STEVEN WAGNER born on January 15, 1991 is emancipated as that term is defined in the Separation Agreement dated February 25, 2001...

The Separation Agreement dated February 25, 2001 defines emancipation, in pertinent part, as "[t]he child attaining the age of twenty-one years, unless the child is attending college full time, and if so, then at the end of the academic year following the child's twenty-first birthday."

In the case at bar it is unrefuted that the plaintiff never gave the defendant $20,000.00 as outlined in the Modification of Separation Agreement. The plaintiff offers no defense as to her failure to pay same. The issue before the Court, therefore, is whether said payment should have been made on or about January 15, 2012 when Jonathan turned twenty-one years of age or sometime in May 2012 when Jonathan allegedly finished his Spring semester at Suffolk County Community College (hereinafter SCCC).

The plaintiff avers that Jonathan attended SCCC in the Spring of 2012 as a full time student. In support of her position, the plaintiff introduced a bill from SCCC dated July 10, 2012 indicating, in sum and substance, that Jonathan paid for Full-Time tuition at SCCC for the Spring of 2012 via a Direct Loan and a TAP Grant (Plaintiff's No. 6). It further indicates that Jonathan was scheduled to take four (4) classes totaling twelve (12) credits (Plaintiff's No. 6). Admittedly, the plaintiff did not recall how she came into possession of this document and has absolutely no personal knowledge regarding Jonathan's matriculation at SCCC in the Spring of 2012. The record is silent as to whether Jonathan actually attended SCCC in the Spring of 2012, completed his twelve credit course load or even completed part of his course load.

After examining and inquiring into the facts and circumstances of the case and hearing the proof and testimony offered in relation thereto, the Court finds that the plaintiff has failed to establish that Jonathan was a full time student at SCCC in the Spring of 2012. A bill indicating that Jonathan paid for full time tuition does not suffice as the record is silent as to whether Jonathan ever actually attended SCCC in the Spring of 2012 and/or completed any of his courses.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the plaintiff shall pay the defendant $20,000.00 together with statutory interest at nine percent (9%) retroactive to January 15, 2012 within thirty (30) days of the instant Decision. If said sum is not paid, the appropriate paperwork may be submitted to the clerk of the court for signature.

The parties have agreed to submit the issue of counsel fees on paper.

Normally, a hearing is required before the Court can award counsel fees, Sadofsky v. Sadofsky, 78 A.D.2d 520 (2nd Dept., 1980); Stern v. Stern, 114 A.D.2d 408 (2nd Dept., 1985); Wood v. Wood, 73 A.D.2d 963 (2nd Dept., 1980). However, in this instance, the parties have stipulated to have the Court determine the issue of fees on the basis of the papers submitted. Entwistle v. Entwistle, 92 A.D.2d 879 (2nd Dept., 1983); Ryan v. Ryan, 92 A.D.2d 889 (2nd Dept., 1983).

The award of reasonable counsel fees is a matter within the sound discretion of the trial court. DeCabrera v. Cabrera-Rosete 70 N.Y.2d 879 (1987); Walker v. Walker, 255 A.D.375 (2nd Dept., 1998). It is well settled that in determining the issue of counsel fees, the Court must consider the nature and extent of the services; the actual time spent and the necessity therefore; the nature of the issues involved; the amount of the fee involved; the professional standing of counsel; the results achieved and the financial needs and circumstances of the parties. Rubenstein v. Rubenstein, 137 A.D.2d 523 (2nd dept., 1988); Ahern v. Ahern, 94 A.D.2d 53 (2nd Dept., 1983).

The parties Separation Agreement, reads, in pertinent part:

...[I]f either party should default in any of his or her obligations hereunder, or should unsuccessfully challenge the validity of this agreement or its interpretation, then said party shall be liable for all damages (including those caused by delayed payments), costs and expenses of the other party as a result thereof, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees. (emphasis added)

In the case at bar, the defendant's attorney, Mr. Rabinowitz, is a well respected and experienced practitioner in the field of matrimonial law. The hourly rate charged by defendant's counsel appears to be in keeping with the customary hourly rate charged by other law firms of similar qualifications for similar matters. Prior to commencing the instant action, the defendant attempted to resolve the instant issue but to no avail. Not only did the plaintiff ignore her obligation to pay, she also ignored the defendant's overtures to resolve the matter. Moreover, despite having no defense for her failure to pay, but for when the actual payment was due, the plaintiff forced the defendant to file the instant action and caused the matter to go to trial. Notwithstanding same, the issue before the Court was in no way complex. In fact, it could not have been more straightforward. To generate counsel fees, therefore, in the amount of $20,747.00 when one is only seeking to recover $20,000.00 plus some statutory interest is unreasonable.

Wherefore, given the preceding, the Court finds that the defendant is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $5,000.00. Said sum shall be paid to the defendant within sixty (60) days of the date of the instant Decision. If said sum is not paid, the appropriate paperwork may be submitted to the clerk of the court for signature.

The foregoing constitutes the Decision and Order of this Court.

¹The plaintiff never denied that she failed to pay the defendant the monies due and owing pursuant to the Modification Agreement. She simply averred that there were certain offsets. The plaintiff's cross-motion in this regard is scheduled for a hearing on September 17, 2014.

Dear Mr. Waldvogel:

Confirming the message left on your telephone, I have reviewed the bankruptcy petition filed by the above-referenced debtor and be advised that all liability that comes due under a divorce decree or separation agreement is a non-dischargeable debt. The bankruptcy filing of Ms. Wagner, if she receives a discharge, will not discharge this type of liability. It should not be necessary for my client to bring an adversary proceeding to have the Bankruptcy Court issue a written decision mirroring what Section 523 states. I am asking you to sign the bottom of this letter acknowledging that you agree that the liability due Walter G. Wagner and his attorney, Gregory Rabinowitz, has not been discharged by this bankruptcy. If you do not make such an agreement, I will have no choice but to commence an adversary proceeding at which time Bankruptcy Judge Trust will require your appearance, including pre-trial orders, memorandums and trial. It would be a tremendous savings of unnecessary time and expense for your just to execute the bottom of this letter. If you should have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Michael J. Macco
